Dear Doug:

This will confirm our telephone conversation of October 10, 1956 about the matter of paying our representative, [Redacted] who is about to join [Redacted]

25X1

[Redacted] has decided not to draw any pay in the field from your dispersing officer. Instead, he would prefer to cash personal checks through your dispersing officer if and when necessary. As stated in our letter of 4 June 1956 from [Redacted] to George, we have agreed to indemnify the government for any loss which may be incurred in the cashing of these checks.

25X1

Very truly yours,
